

Terms of Use 'Regulating Civil Society Dataset'

Restrictions

- Redistribution of the provided data is forbidden except when redistribution is authorized in writing by the Regulating Civil Society Project. When sharing data or other materials in the approved way, you must include all accompanying files with the data, including Terms of Use.
- You agree not to use the materials in any way prohibited by applicable law.
- You agree to store the data and/or documents in a way that allows you to identify their provenance (the Regulating Civil Society Project). One procedure to do so would be: 1) folders containing documents from the Regulating Civil Society Project should not contain documents from other sources unless explicitly documented, and 2) The terms of use need to be present in all such folders (They do not need to be present in subfolders if the main folder contains the terms of use and all subfolders contain only documents from the Regulating Civil Society Project).

Obligation to Quote

- You agree to reference the recommended bibliographic citation in any publication (books, articles, conference papers, theses, dissertations, working papers and other publications) that employs the provided resource. The recommended bibliographic citation is the following: Nicole Bolleyer (2019) The Regulating Civil Society Dataset, <https://www.cps-lmu.org/civilspace---research.html>.
- You agree to send citations of published works that employs the provided resource for inclusion in a database of related publications. This can be done via e-mail to n.bolleyer@lmu.de.

Obligation to Inform

- You will immediately notify the Regulating Civil Society Project in writing of any unauthorized use of the data, or other data related security breaches of which you are aware.

Limitation of Liability

- You acknowledge that the Regulating Civil Society Project bears no responsibility for use of the data or for interpretations or inferences based upon such uses.
- The Regulating Civil Society Project makes no warranties, express or implied, by operation of Law or otherwise, regarding or relating to the dataset.